COVER: Isaac Blackford was born in Somerset County, New Jersey, November 6, 1786. After graduating from Princeton College he read law in the offices of George McDonald and Gabriel Ford. He moved to Indiana in 1812. Upon the organization of Washington County in 1813 he was chosen as its first clerk and recorder. In 1814 he served as clerk of the Territorial Legislature and then briefly as judge of the first judicial circuit. He opened a law office in Vincennes and was elected as a representative from Knox County in 1816. It is a tribute to his reputation and character that he was elected Speaker of the first Indiana House of Representatives without a contest. He served on the Supreme Court of Indiana from 1817 to 1853. He was one of the organizers of the Indiana Historical Society and served as one of its officers. He was a judge of the Federal Court of Claims at his death in 1859. He is buried at Crown Hill Cemetery, Indianapolis.

THIS ISSUE is largely devoted to listing the members of the lower house of the Indiana General Assembly, A -J, 1851 - 1967. Please note the dates for the Spring History Workshop.

MEMBERS OF THE INDIANA HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES - 1851-1967

A - J

In the History Bulletin for September, 1967, lists of elected state administrative officials were published. In November, the Bulletin carried a roster of the Indiana membership in the national House of Representatives. A list of U. S. Senators from Indiana appeared in December. In June, 1968, county census data, 1810-1960 was made available. In August and September the Bulletin called the roll of the upper house of the Indiana General Assembly, 1851-1967. From letters received it would appear that students and teachers of Indiana history, genealogists and reference librarians have found these compilations useful. In this issue the first half of the roster of the Indiana House of Representatives, A-J, 1851-1967, is printed. This listing was prepared by Mrs. Shirley McCord of the Indiana Historical Bureau staff.

FIRST CALL FOR THE SPRING WORKSHOP

Plan now to attend the 1969 Spring Workshop. It will be held at Clifty Inn in beautiful Clifty Falls State Park from Thursday evening, April 24, through Sunday morning, April 27.

The meeting has been scheduled at Clifty Falls because of the superior accommodations available there. Rooms in the old Inn with running water but without bath are $3.75 per person per day. In the new and adjacent Lodge the rate is $6.75 per person per day. All rooms in the Lodge have private bath and two double beds. Meals will be in addition to these rates. A modest registration fee is charged to help defray Workshop costs. When reservations are made with the Inn, please indicate that you are attending the Workshop.

The Workshop is sponsored by the Indiana Historical Bureau, the Indiana State Library and the Indiana Historical Society.

RESTORATION OF LEVI COFFIN HOME

The Wayne County Historical Society is in the midst of a campaign to raise funds for the restoration, furnishing, and maintenance of the former Levi Coffin home at Fountain City, Indiana, as a memorial to Levi Coffin, the "president of the Underground Railroad." His home at old Newport, the former name of Fountain City, where he lived from 1826 to 1846, served as the "grand central station" for escape routes converging from Cincinnati, Madison, and Jeffersonville.

The Coffin house has eight rooms, including a basement kitchen and spring room. There are a lower and an upper hall, and six fireplaces. The house has borne for many years a commemorative plaque placed by the Wayne County Society of Indianapolis. A second plaque was placed there in 1965 by the National Trust for Historic Preservation. In 1967 the state of Indiana purchased the house and leased it to the Wayne County Historical Society for restoration, furnishing, and opening to the public as a memorial to Levi and Catharine Coffin and as an Underground Railroad museum.

The Lilly Endowment, Inc. has made a challenge grant of $14,500 toward the project. The present campaign of the Wayne County Historical Society has a goal of $25,000, which in addition to matching the Lilly Endowment grant will provide a small contingency fund. A limestone "Freedom Walk" will commemorate donors of $75 up, or any person or organization they may designate. The first donation, one of $500, came from the Heritage Club of Richmond. Interested persons are encouraged to send donations, of whatever size, in care of Robert N. Huff, campaign director for the Wayne County Historical Society, 1150 North A Street, Richmond 47374.

It is hoped to have the house ready for visitors by the coming summer.
Opal Thornburgh, Richmond

BOOK NOTES

Satan's Ferryman: A True Tale of the Old Frontier. By W. D. Snively, Jr. and Louanna Furbie. (New York: F. Ungar Publishing Co., 1968. Pp. 244. Illustrations, maps and index. $6.50.)

This chronicle of violence is set along the Ohio some distance below Evansville. While it is essentially a western Kentucky - southern Illinois story, it will be of interest to Hoosier readers. After all the Fords and the Harps were hazards of river travel in a period when Indianans made extensive use of the Ohio. It is well researched, well written and attractively illustrated.

Pioneer Sketches; Containing Facts and Incidents of the Early History of DeKalb County. By S. W. Widney. (Auburn: DeKalb County Historical Society, Inc., 1968. Pp. xlv and 53. Index of personal names. Paper. $2.75.)

The DeKalb County Historical Society has reprinted Widney's Sketches which appeared as a 53-page booklet in 1859. Widney's material was first issued as a series of articles in the DeKalb County Times. Copies may be obtained by writing to Pioneer Sketches, Post Office Box 148, Auburn, Indiana 46706.
